DELUGE OF RAIN

Sweeps Down on Maysville—
Flood of Two Years Ago
Outdone By This Morn-ing's DownpourMuddy Waters Rushed Through the Streets, Alleys and Sewers and Many Homes Were Again
Washed OutThis morning at 8:30 o'clock the clouds gathered and the heavens were so overhad-owed by the darkened pall that the electric lights had to be turned on to see to work and read. Gradually the storm seemed to center over our city and in a few minutes torrents of rain began to fall, which in ten minutes had increased to the proportions of a rushing, yellow flood, the water even reaching a higher mark than that of the big washout of April 1st, 1908, when $50,000 damage was done in and around Maysville.The people stood in mute awe watching the downpour and the creeping waters invade basements, cellars, homes and business houses.While the loss is immense the people were to some extent prepared for it; Raina Bros., particularly, had arranged for the emergency and had no grain damaged, while in 1908 their loss was $6,000.While the entire city was deluged and streets ran as rivers the real flooded district was as usual in West Third street, where devastation and destruction were greatest.The Brooks house, occupied temporarily by Mr. P. Sammons, served as an outlet for the vast volume of water that came from the hillside waterway with an irresistible rush, carrying massive rocks and other debris in its on-rue.The family of Mr. Sammons was taken out from the second story by way of an adjoining building. Raina Bros. and other residents on the North side of the street were slightly inundated, and the dwellers in Sheepskin alley from Third to the rear of the M. E. Church, South, were flooded and compelled to vacate.Misses Heiser, Fred Williams, James Redmond and Mackey & Co.'s livery stable were more or less greatly damaged.In East Fourth street the water from the Fifth street sewer overflowed the culvert, flooding an outlet down Cherry street, rushing over Mr. P. Murphy's steps like a young Niagara falls, and converting Third street into a sea of muddy water. Market street was in the same condition, and for the first time in its history cellars on the North side of Second, including Dickson & Co.'s livery stable, were flooded.The cellars of THE PUBLIC LEDGER, Cabish & Bro. and Crane & Shafer in the Cox Building, and that of M. C. Russell Company were flooded to the depth of nearly two feet, and the same conditions prevailed more or less all over the city.During the rain storm lightning struck and partially destroyed a chimney on Dinger Bros.
building in Market street.Commonwealth's Attorney M. J. Hennessey and Mr. Charles Lytle of Bracken county, John W. Wooster, E. B. Hager and Joe Head of Ashland, R. B. Wilson and T. B. Bullock of Vanceburg passed through here yesterday en route to Carlisle as Convention delegates.

EDWARD WOHLBECKER.

Yesterday morning Edward Wohlbecker, aged 30, died at the home of his mother near the plant of the Maysville Brick Company.He had suffered very patiently for more than eight months with an incurable disease.He was a member of the Central Presbyterian Church.The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home, conducted by Rev. Maurice Waller.

MRS. MARY OSBORNE.

The venerable Mrs. Mary Osborne died last afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Neal Dwyer, in the Downing neighborhood, aged 84.Funeral tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Interment in Washington Cemetery.'Squire J. O. Pickrell is acting County Judge today during Judge Rice's absence at Carlisle.Governor W. H. Cox is confined to his home in West Second street and is suffering from a severe cold.John E. O'Rourke, a New York engineer, who bridged the Hudson at Poughkeepsie and drove the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel under the North River, has submitted a plan to the Secretary of War for raising the battleship
Maine from Havana harbor by pneumatic caissons.

Police Court.

Judge Frank P. O'Donnell disposed of the following cases in Police Court yesterday afternoon:Sant Mitchell, disorderly conduct, $8.50.
Thomas Maher, drunk and disorderly, $5
and cost and ten days in jail.

SPECIAL TAX SUITS KNOCKED OUT

Repudiating the actions of State Revenue
Agents at Large M. P. Rehorn and S. H. Kaeb, in filing suits to collect taxes and penalties on the holdings of many Covingtonians in foreign corporations, State Auditor F. P. James delivered a knock-out blow to the several hundred suits which have already been filed. It is claimed that the suits have driven many persons out of the city because they meant double taxation.

THE RICHEST RACE

Stake a Marked Success Producing Excellent Results.This Year the Stake Will Be Held on Lexington Day, the Second Day of the Fair.The richest race ever offered for two-year-old trotting horses by a fair association was the Thousand Dollar stake given at the Blue Grass Fair last year. This stake was a marked success and produced an excellent contest. The winner turned up in Hill-brooke Queen, owned by the Messrs.
Smyser Brothers, of Louisville, Ky., and in the field that finished behind her was the noted Sue D., which afterwards won the famous Lexington stake
at the fall meeting of the Kentucky
Trotting Horse Breeders' association.This stake will be renewed for the Blue Grass Fair this year and will be a feature of the racing programme of the week. It will be contested on Tuesday, the second day of the fair
which has been designed as Lexington day. The probability is that it will have an even larger field than went to the post last year. While it will be the most notable feature of the racing program during the week, there will be a number of other races, both for harness horses and for runners, which are certain to produce splendid contests and to evoke general interest.Running races will be made more of a feature than at any previous fair and large fields for each of the several events to be offered are assured.
There will besides be a splendid programme of cup races offered for members of the Gentlemen's Driving Club.
So that during each afternoon, beginning with Monday and including Saturday, excellent racing will be witnessed.RIPLEY

Correspondence

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. J. S. Degman was a business visitor to Maysville Monday.

Mr. Bert Grigsby and family of Tollesboro are visiting relatives here.

Rev. W. W. Hall was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Degman recently.

Mrs. C. C. Degman left Tuesday for Ruggles Campground to remain during the meeting.

Mrs. Mary North of Campbell county will be the guest of Mrs. C. C. Degman during Campmeeting.

Postmaster Tolly was taken seriously ill Saturday and for several hours was in a serious condition.

Mr. Joseph Holt and family have returned to their home at Amelia, O., after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Anna Maria Bryant, who died at her home in Portsmouth, Ohio, recently, was the only daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Wilson of Sand Hill, Lewis county, where her girlhood was spent and where she is lovingly remembered, not because of her rare personal beauty, though that was noted, rendering her the "belle of the county" in the long ago, but because of a gentle gracefulness of manner and a personality that was charming in the extreme. She leaves a wide circle of friends, who sincerely sympathize with the sorrowing husband in the passing which has so bereft many of us.

EAST LIMESTONE.

Mr. William Wise of Forest avenue was a business guest in this locality the first of the week.

From the appearance of the number of blackberry pickers, there are two pickers for every berry.

Mrs. Maggie Gifford of Lexington is here for a three weeks' stay with her mother, Mrs. Mary Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallingford and sister, Miss Elma Parker, spent Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. Cyrus Case.

Miss Mand Parker of Indiana, who has been visiting her parents and other relatives at this place and Orangeburg, has returned home.

The West foundation of the bridge over Limestone at the home of Mrs. McGee gave way under the pressure of the big flood that occurred Saturday.

John Redmond, colored, is rejoicing over a fine Jersey heifer calf, presented to him by his employer, Mr. Jack Coughlin, as a reward of faithful service.

John Redmond, colored, had an axe stolen from his yard recently. Uncle John says he knows the party and if they don't soon replace it they have to stand the consequences.

Meers. Frank and Charles Williams narrowly escaped being killed Monday while painting a roof on their barn. The ladder became loose from its fastening and in its rapid downward slide precipitated them 20 feet to the ground, escaping all injuries except a big scare, few bruises and a loss of two buckets of paint. Now their friends are interrogating them if they were trying to perform an aerial flight or a professional high dive.

FEARIS.

Come out to Campmeeting.

Oscar Fearis is up from the city on a vacation.

Wet weather has swamped oats and hay harvest.

Eldelia Weaver is visiting her son, Frank, at Pence Station.

Trees and bushes are about to shut off travel on our roads.

The heavy rains have got our roads in a very rough condition.

Some farmers have turned their tobacco to weeds and fox tail grass.

Croxtan Post wants all to attend the G. A. R. reunion on Mower Park and take some part.

Mrs. Myrtle Houston of Portsmouth, O., is visiting her father, W. H. Sparks, who was badly injured by falling off his barn last week.

We have just got word that J. H. Bryant of Croxtan Post, G. A. R., died at his home in Portsmouth and that the funeral took place in Manchester Monday evening, July 18th. Why was not the G. A. R. notified here?

The general disposition of late seems to be to place a portion of the burden of blame on the automobile; whisky and cigarettes were probably tired of carrying it all, anyhow.

The Elmendorf Farm, near Lexington, will raise 325 acres of tobacco this year, and will lead in size of crop raised by one man.—Floating Item. President LeBus made the statement here that he would have cultivated on his farm 500 acres this year.—Carlisle Mercury.

The gaze marks S S and falling.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

On account of the serious drought, which has ruined the cattle ranges of South Dakota and Wyoming, cattle and sheep raisers are preparing to ship every available head of live stock to the markets.

LIKE OLD FRIENDS

The Longer You Know Them the Better You Like Them

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail you. Maysville people know this. Read this Maysville case. Read how Doan's stood the test for three years. It's local testimony and can be investigated: William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"For two years I had pains in my back and other troubles, caused by disordered kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I began their use and they soon gave me relief. I cheerfully recommend this remedy as one that lives up to the claims made for it."

The above statement was given on December 13th, 1904, and on February 6th, 1905, Mr. Paul added:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them. My cure has been permanent and I am now in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

John McGowan, a prominent Nicholas county farmer, died Monday at his home near Oakland Mills, aged 67 years.

The highest record price ever paid for Kentucky Bluegrass seed was paid Monday, when the pooled crops of Clark, Bourbon and Montgomery counties were purchased by the Ohio Supply Company of Cincinnati at $151 per bushel for August delivery—and means a price of $3 per barrel for the cleaned seed in October. The remainder of the Kentucky and Missouri crop is controlled by D. S. Gay of Winchester.

Verdict of Coroner On the Death of Miss Mary Power

A special from White Plains, New York, says—
"Coroner Boedeker rendered a verdict today in the death of Miss Mary Power of Maysville, Ky., and a student at Brantwood Hall, Bronxville, who was killed on July 9th by a North-bond Harlem express train while she was running to catch a train to New York City. The Coroner censures both the railroad company and the village of Bronxville for maintaining a dangerous crossing and he further blames the railroad company for not providing bells and fenders on its electric motors and also for maintaining shrubbery of such a height at the crossing that it prevents the public from seeing approaching trains and engineers from seeing pedestrians."

The deal was closed Monday by which Dr. Charlton B. Clift purchased the Southeast corner of Ninth and Elm, Cincinnati, for investment. He has released the property to Charles Biechtel for five years from date at a rental for the term of $10,000.

HEAR THEM TONIGHT

Every one should listen to Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Orne tonight at Second and Market Street Square. Dr. Orne delivers his world wide love lecture, "Cause and Cure of Crime." Don't miss it. No collection.

This consecrated couple found two very pitiable cases yesterday—a madame upon whom doctors have pronounced the death sentence and a fallen girl, mere child, sick and has already tried three times to suicide. She begs to be sent to her parents, promising to lead a better life. Her address can be had of Mayor Lee or Chief Ort, and Christian people should respond at once.

UNGRATEFUL BOY

Thomas Windham, a seventeen-year-old youth, claiming Georgia as his home, who came here in April during the Street Fair with a Wild West show and was fearfully burned while lighting up the tent for an evening performance, afterwards becoming a patient at Wilson Hospital, where he was tenderly nursed back to health at the expense of the public, has proven to be a dishonest and ungrateful boy.

Sunday he stole $2 and a butcher knife from the Montgomery House, took Charley McClanahan's canoe and started on a voyage down the river, Cincinnati opposed to be his destination. Windham certainly repaid his benefactors in a very unkind manner.

"A New York department store has ordered a wireless telegraph outfit, which will be installed on the roof of the store, so that passengers of incoming liners may do their shopping by wireless."

Wonder what the dphools will think of next? Why don't they stay at home and "do their shopping early?"

AUGUST RORKE (name sounds like robko) only stole $1,150,000 of the funds belonging to the Fidelity Trust Company of Louisville. The reason AUGUST didn't steal more was that there wasn't any more money in the concern to steal. There was nothing small about RORKE except his honor. He is simply a born thief of the American school of accomplished embezzlers. It is satisfactory to note, however, that these chaps always land behind the bars if they do leave a trail of misery behind them.

Today at Carlisle the Democrats of the Ninth District meet to nominate a candidate in opposition to Congressman Bennett.

It is now Fields against the field.

Neither candidate can win on the first ballot.

W. J. Fields of Carter county is in the lead with 51 votes. Edgar B. Hager of Boyd has 27, and Senator Mathers of Nicholas 9.

Lewis, Rowan and Mason counties are non-structured. Fifty-six votes are required to nominate.

A large delegation from Mason county is in attendance and one of the warmest contests in the history of the District is promised.
